AN APPROPRIATE.

With the foregoing poem on the cover of the program as an inspiration one of the most select crowds of the season enjoyed to the fullest measure the complimentary dancing party given by the employes of the John Scowcroft & Sons company at the Congress Dancing Academy last Friday

A program of twenty-two dances each having a most euphoneous title, such as "Allen's Foot Ease," "The Ghost Walk," and "The Ink Dippers' Dream" (moonlight) was carried out with pleasing success.

A feature greatly enjoyed by all was the delicious fruit and claret punch made by Mr. L. J. Grether, who also presided at the punch bowl.

Messrs, E. O. Peterson, Walter Ste vens, Percy Goddard and Clint Wil son entertained those present with a number of songs, receiving great applause.

Deserving of credit for the arrange-ment of the affair are Messrs. Alvin Mortensen, Ray Warner, Percy Goddard and E. O. Peterson. The music was furnished by a six-plece orchestra.

The party dispersed at 1:25 o'clock, the guests going home with the fol-lowing poem in memory:
